Paige,
You are a real good friend. I hope you will always be around as good as you are now. I hope you enjoyed being in your classes. I hope I will be with you next year. I know we have a good time. I'm basically a shy person but I'm still friends. I hope we are real sweet to each other. I like you are not afraid to be yourself. It shows you will go far in life. You smile appears to be real but I know it's not. Good luck in the future.

1972
CHIEFTAIN

Volume 52

Beginning; The long shadows stretch ahead. Maize Days. Staying up late to work on floats. Spectators arriving for the first football game. Ordering mums. The big homecoming game. Twirp Week arrives. Anxious girls hopefully getting that special date. Class members rehearsing plays. Hustle and bustle and cramming for semester exams. Finally come the Christmas holidays. Relaxing, vacationing, ending with return to school. Basketball. Girls practicing and winning district. Elaborate decorations for banquets. Working late tying colorful streamers across the room. Boys nervously pinning on corsages. Hurrying home to make it before curfew. Easter holidays bringing a long waited for break. Hard finals to study for. Hopeful Seniors wanting exemption.
Ending; Procession of graduating Seniors going down the auditorium aisles. Graduation.

The long shadows now stretch behind.

Remember? This was '72.

IN APPRECIATION

The annual staff wishes to express their extreme gratitude to Mr. Bobby Wied for drawing the Chieftain seen on page one.

Yet I Cannot Tarry Longer

Kahlil Gibran

The sea that calls unto her calls me,
and I must embark.
For to stay, though the hours burn in the night,
is to freeze and crystallize and be bound in a mould.
Fain would I take with me all that is here.
But how shall I?
A voice cannot carry the tongue and the lips that give it wings.
And alone and without his nest shall the eagle fly across the sun.

To the Students:

As you look through this Chieftain, what do you look for and what do you see? Pictures of classmates in different settings reflect many memories of one year of our lives. We hope each student and teacher has a pleasant memory and satisfaction from his achievement of the 1971-1972 year. Since our school is the largest involved business in the community, it takes much cooperation and understanding of students, teachers, and parents for success. Any school should place some emphasis on scholastic achievement, but may we never forget to have respect for ideas and viewpoints of others.

Sincerely,

Aeton Farr

Here we see Mrs. Jennings working?

Mrs. Allen seems to enjoy counting money.

To the Students:

An architect never starts to put up an important building without first drawing a plan. It's hard to draw the plans. But it's necessary to have buildings strong and useful, with each part just right, that much time is spent in careful planning.

An architect makes the general plan - such as the size of the building and the number of rooms; but that's not all. Very small details have to be worked out. If details are not planned so they will work together, the house is not well built.

Do we ever think of our life as a building - a large, important building, that takes a lifetime to complete? If we were going to build a house, we would plan it carefully. And we should plan our life just as carefully. We all need to make the big, general plan and decide whether we're going to be a doctor or driver, seamstress or salesman, teacher or preacher, electrician or technician, clerk or chemist.

It is important to make such big over-all plans. Then make our detail plans - of our habits - our diet - our reading - our use of spare time - our interests - our associates - our "other vocation" - our savings and investments.

Each day of life is one detail of our big plan; we need to make each day count. We need to make each day of our life a perfect detail in our life's building by filling our spare time with worthwhile activities. Every man is the architect of his own career. He needs to plan his life and work his plan.

Sincerely,

Raymond Cook

Chieftain Fight Song

Oh, when those good ole' Chieftains fall in line
We're gonna win this game another time
And for the dear ole' school we love so well,
We're gonna yell, and yell, and yell, and yell, and yell.
We're gonna fight, fight, fight for evermore,
We're gonna win this game and win
some more,
We're gonna roll ole' (opponent)
in the dust, in the dust.
Rah, Rah, Rah-ah-ah.

Johnny, if you used spray net, you might be able to see the ball.

Annual Staff

1st ROW: Margaret Emerson, Cheryl Patterson, Katie Lewellen. 2nd ROW: Mrs. Cleveland, Sponsor; Kathy Horton, Editor; Terry Bingham, Asst. Editor. 3rd ROW: Carl Evans, Photographer; Davey Hill; Robert Jackson, Artist.

Being on the annual staff is certainly an experience. Each member has special duties and each has certain things he is in charge of.

Kathy Horton is the editor of this year's annual. She is in charge of seeing that everything gets done plus seeing that her own work gets completed. Sometimes it seems that the job of editor is never finished.

Terry Bingham, our assistant editor, has been invaluable this year. She has been a great assistant plus helping with photography and, of course, doing her own work as well.

Carl Evans, the photographer, has to be one of the busiest people on the staff. He has taken, developed, and printed many pictures, often working late in the afternoon. Carl has tried hard to please and deserves many thanks.

Margaret Emerson is a fantastic staff member. She is the best typist on the staff, and many times this skill has been called on by other members of the staff.

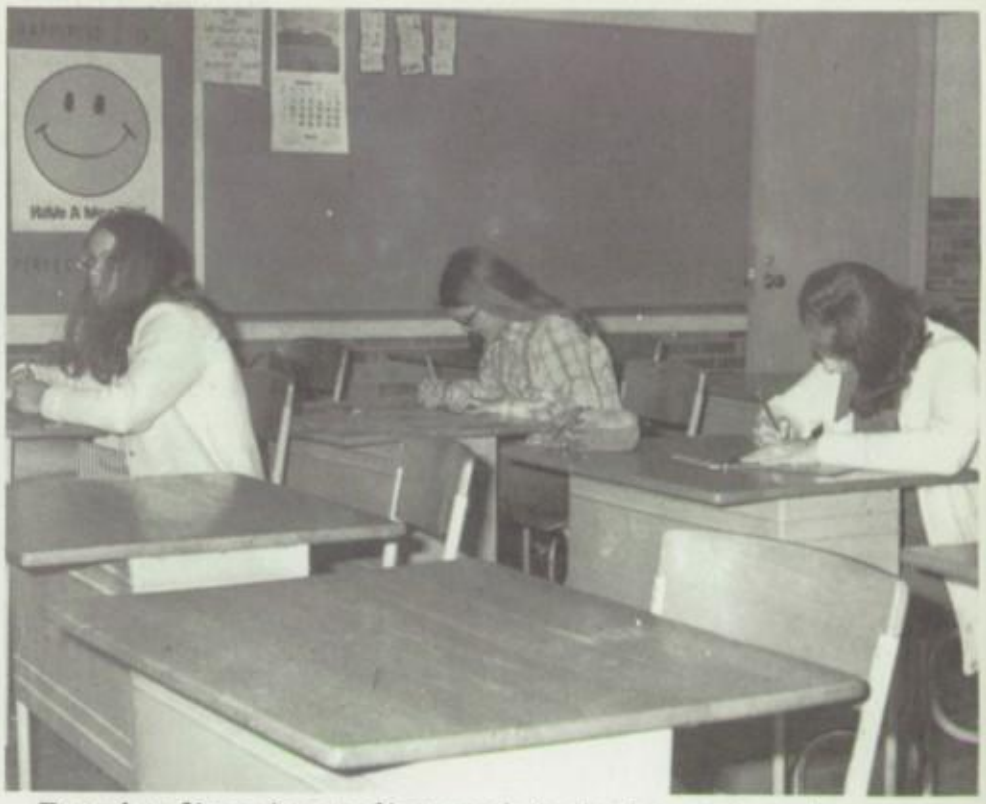
Another member of the staff is Davey Hill. Davey has been indispensible to Carl as he has helped print many a picture. Also, his wit and quick mind have proved to be his most valuable asset as he thinks up so many of the candid lines.

Robert Jackson, whose art work is seen on the divider pages, has worked hard drawing and redrawing until his work pleases all staff members.

Two more members of the staff are Katie Lewellen and Cheryl Patterson. These members have provided many enjoyable moments for the staff with their many jokes and their happy presence. They have drawn many a line for the pages in the annual and have been fun to work with.

There is only one member of the staff left ... Mrs. Cleveland. Only one word can be said to describe her - GREAT!!!

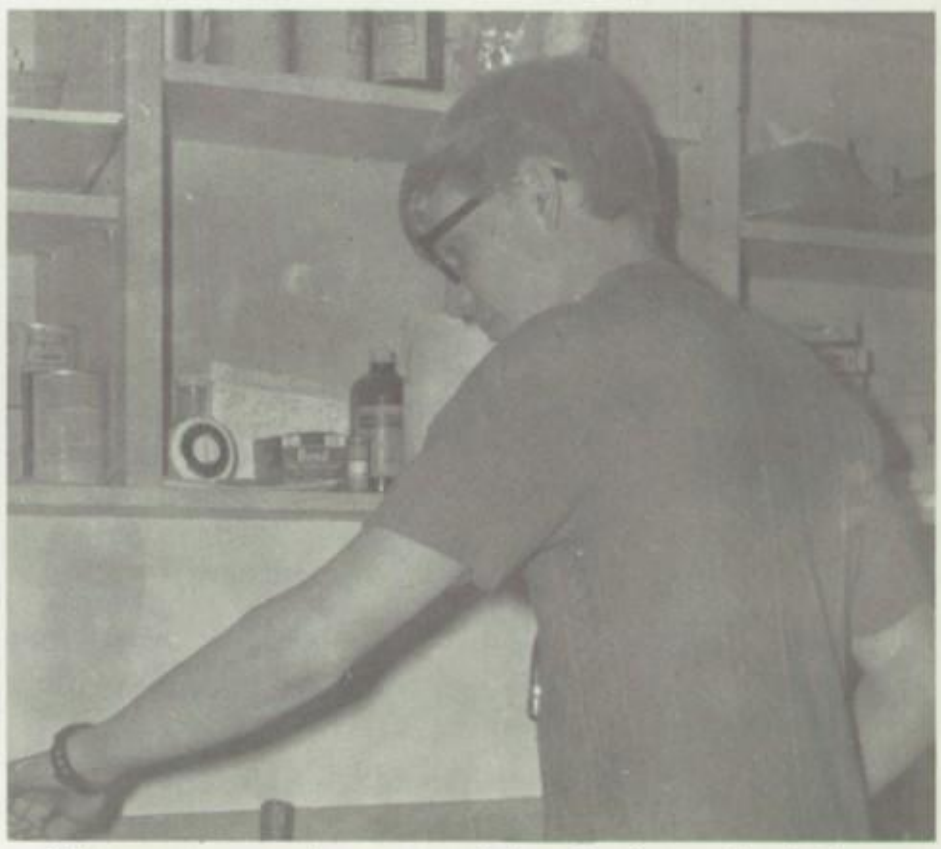
Drawing the divider pages wasn't difficult for Robert.



Drawing lines is a tedious task in laying out each page.

Many thoughts come into the minds of the staff while going over the candids.

Working in the grade schools is a part of being on the staff.



There are many hours spent developing and printing pictures.

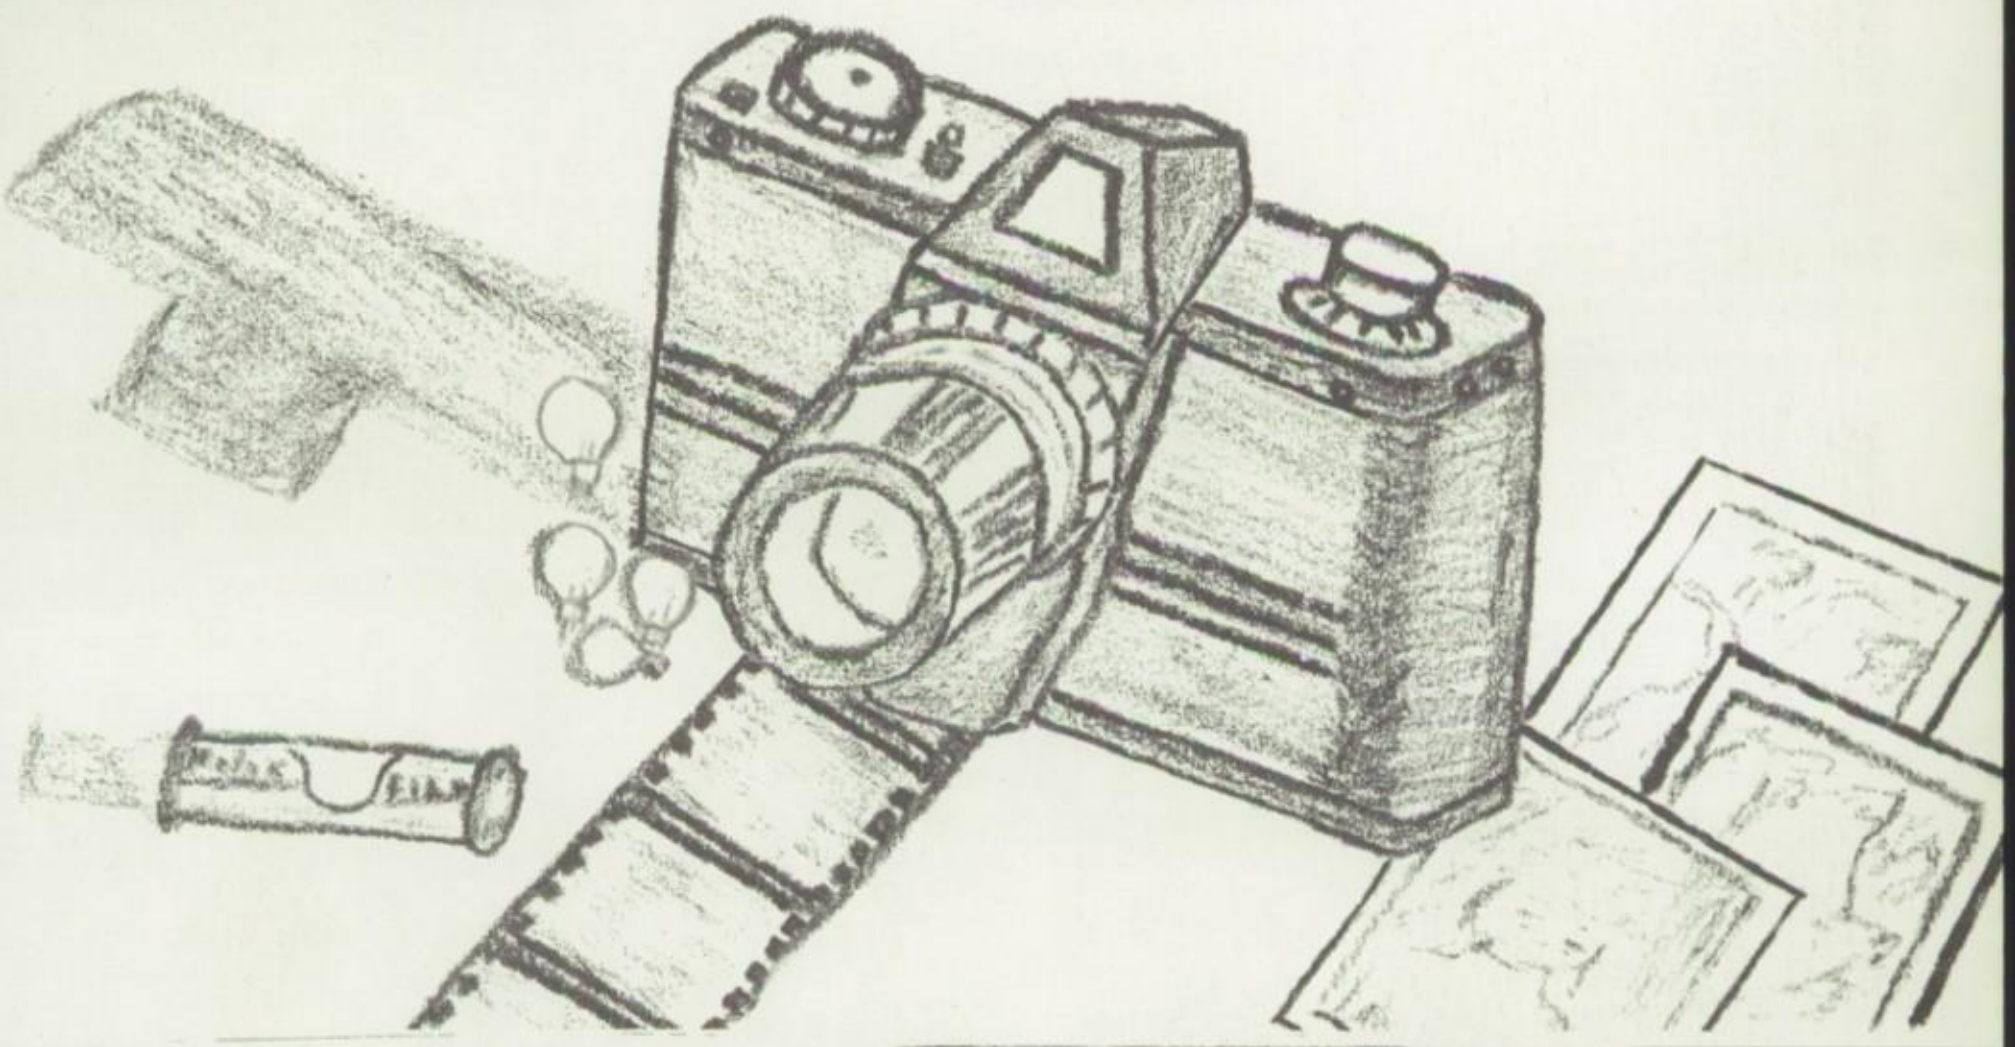
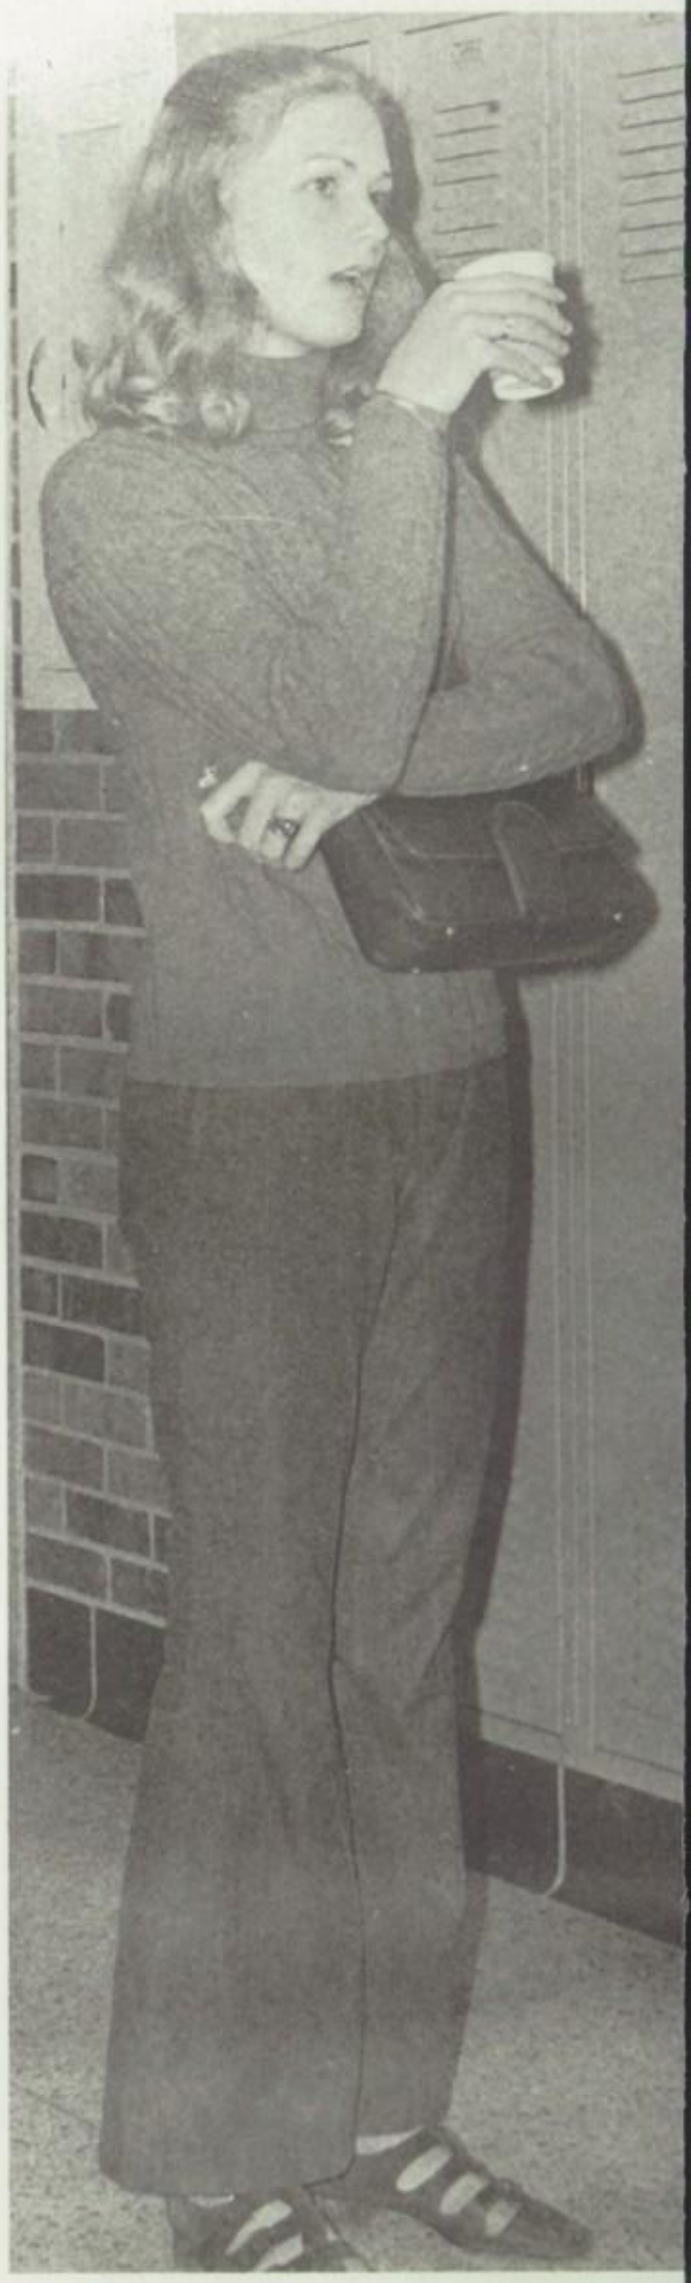
Experiencing Life Day by Day



CANDIDS

"Mrs. Priest, you did what on your dates!!"

"If you make me push one more penny I'll ..."



"And he's so handsome!!!"

"You may kick me off the team for this but ..."

"O.K., what did Kelly do this time???"

"That hat is really becoming, Troy."

"It's in Mrs. Truitt, It's in."

What's on your mind, Scott?

"Oh, that's not so."

Kim's got the freshest mouth in town.

Ann shows us her better side.

One doesn't know how splendid it is to take one bite of a Push-up.

???

"Oh don't Mike."

"Where you lead, I will follow."

"But Maron, I already have a date for Saturday."

Holley, I don't think that will take you very far.

"Did you hear about ..."

"Practice makes perfect."

"Cindy, you're hands are cold."

"For once they have to look up to me."

Connie is given moral support to ask for that big twirp date.

Davey enjoys entertaining during lunch.

Robin and Renee show us their way of kissing.

O.K. spread eagle across the door.

Patricia, caught in one of her usual stances, draws an audience.

"Oh! Hello Mrs. Cleveland."

Squaws getting mentally prepared for the game.

Diane Day shows her true identity.

"Boy, that is ALRIGHT!!!"

Big Bird prepares for take off.

"What do you mean fouled out? I haven't even played."

" ... And then I hit him with my two front teeth."

Terry helps Jay conform to dress code rules.

BEWARE: These "innocent" looking girls have contracted something called KARATE.

To everything there is a season.

A Coke, is it???

"Kiss me quick or I'll turn into a charming prince."

"Only my hairdresser knows for sure."

Wake up. Vic!!!

Such grace and precision is exhibited by this move.

And gossip sessions ramble on and on ...

"Romeo!" "Juliet?"

"The ball has to be around here somewhere."

"I never knew girls could be so much trouble."

Skip to my Lou.

All the makeup in the world wouldn't help.

"That makes sense."

"Mr. Pryor, which comes first, the egg or the chicken?"

"Come on Bandy, she won't bite."

"Hey, guys, look what I found in my locker."

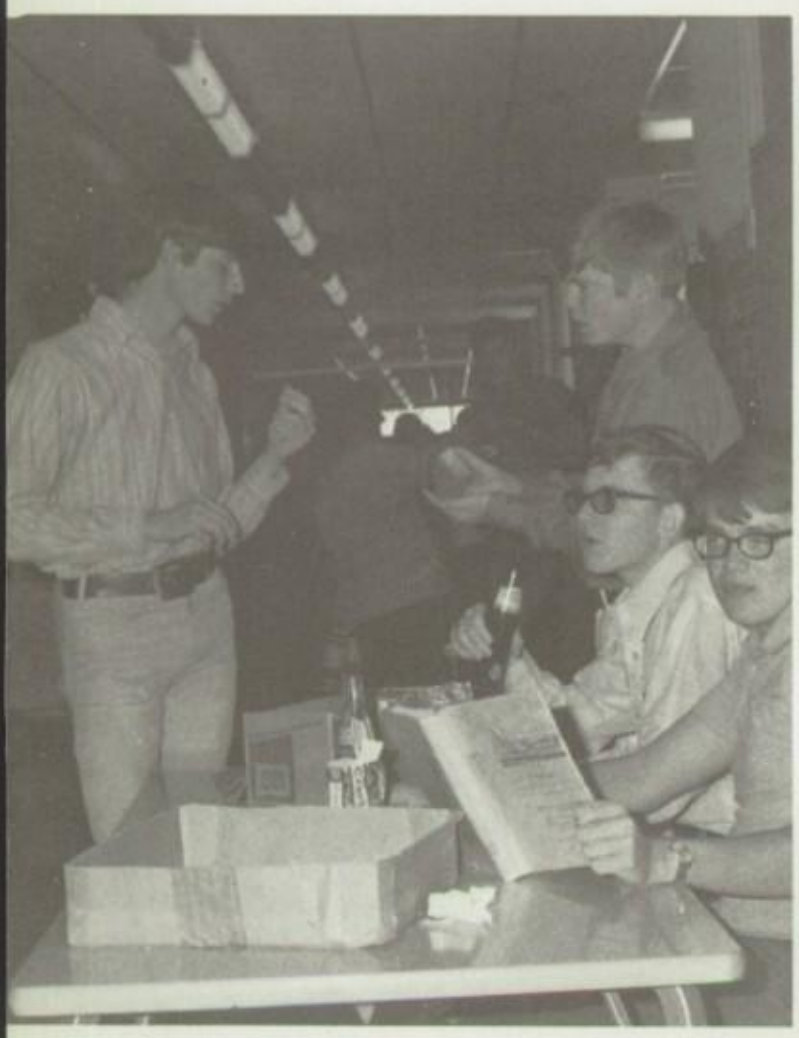
You call that studying?

"After you shut your eyes, then you take her hand like this."

"All this work for nothing."

"I should have enough time for a 6-hour nap before I get waited on.

Coach Dyess, deprived of love notes in his youth, finds a great enjoyment in assembling one in his later years.



"And you call these brownies?"

"Is it Owen or Owens?"

"It's one of those days!"

"But, But ..."

"But Davey, I told you the whole truth, and nothing but the truth."

"But Johnny you know I can't."

Squaws enjoying one of their days off.

"I always wanted to be THE big football hero.

"I'll tell you whats right, Vandra."

"I now crown you Snow Queen!"

"Either I grew, or that locker shrunk."

Is this what they call the wind blown look?

"But my lips are chapped!"

"What you see is what you get."

Money in the hands of evil.

Joy anxiously awaits the arrival of the "Male."

"No, let's go this way."

"Now where did he go this time?"

"Hey, Dad, have you heard the one about ..."
"MY that was good."

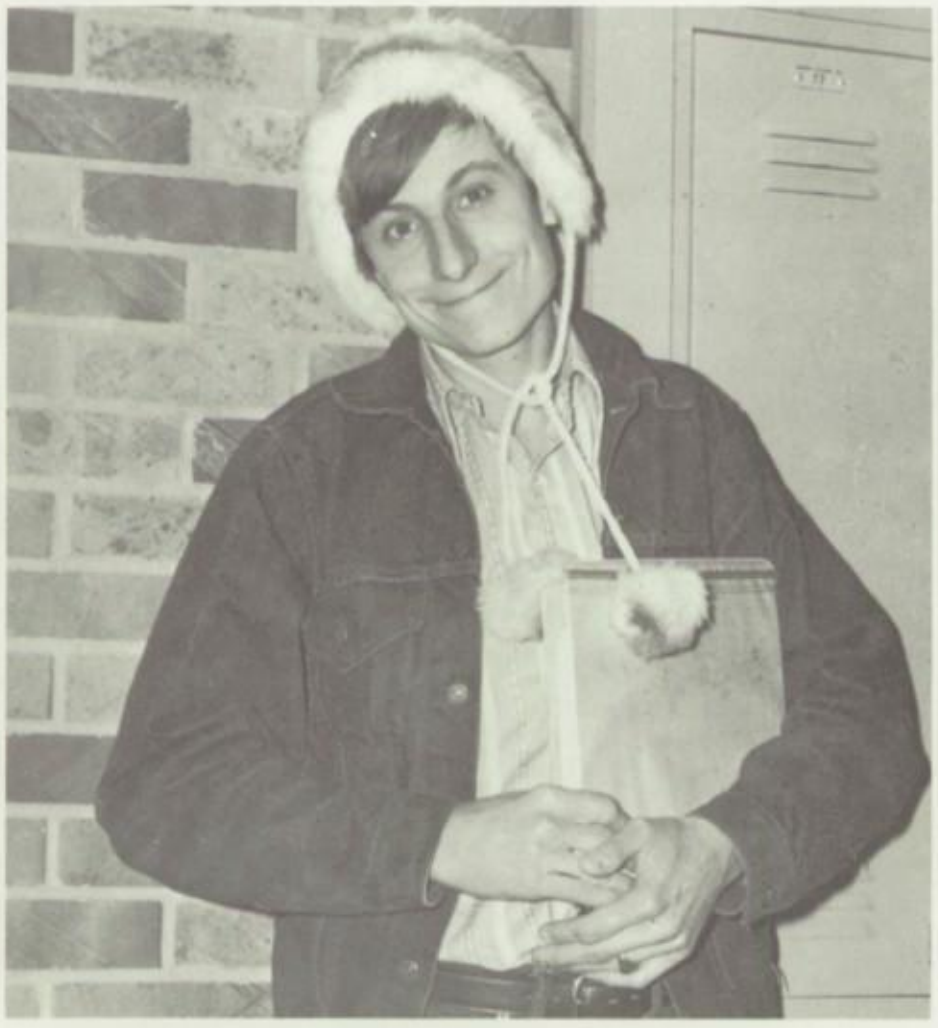
Another victory for F. H. S.

"Reba, if Mom finds out you ate her candy ..."

"I've never seen a coach cry."

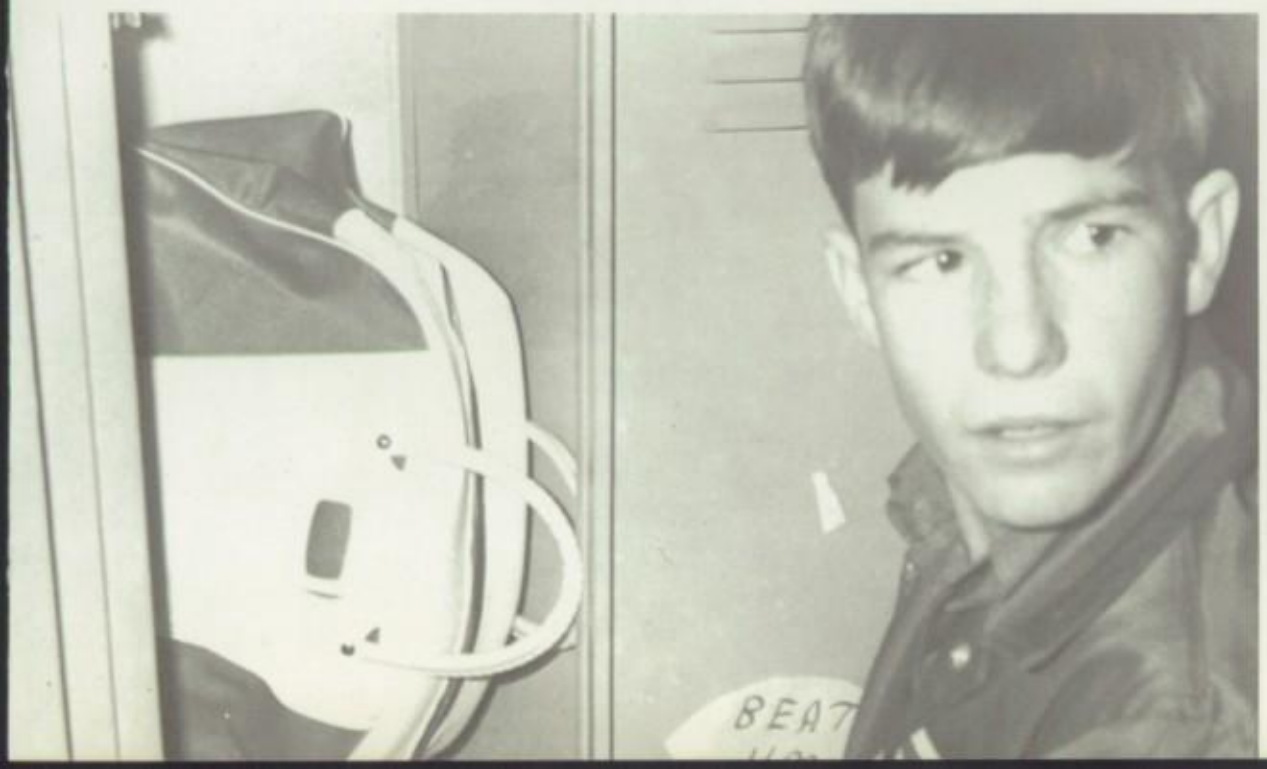
The Betsy Ross of F. H. S.

Is this a new dance step?



Meet Randilia, our D.E. Sweetheart.

"Wait, you haven't heard the punch line yet."



"Hey, son, are you trying to pick a fight?"

Chipmunk Greeson comes out of hibernation.

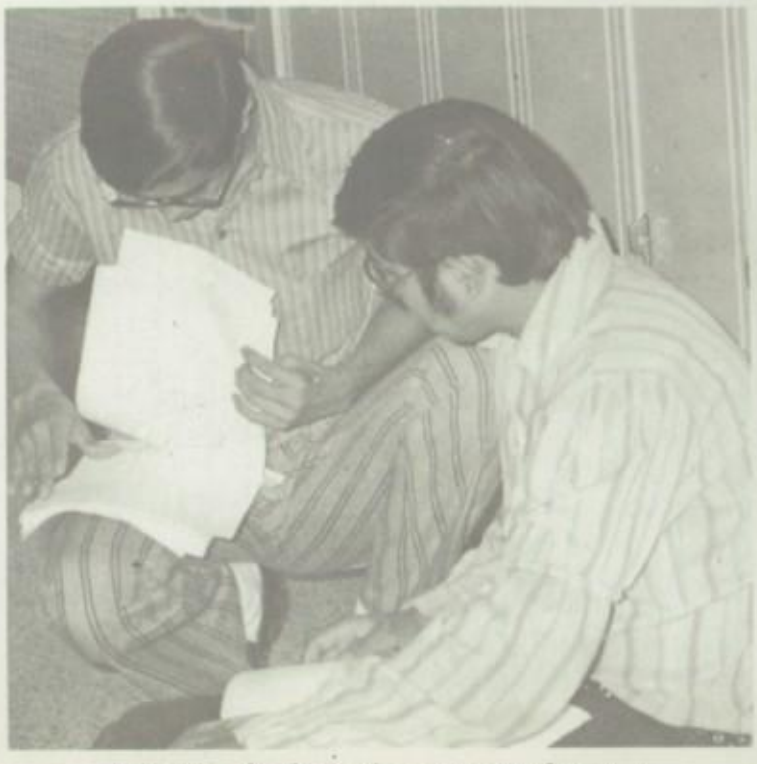
Sorry Steve, we already have three candidates.

"Why don't you come over sometime?"

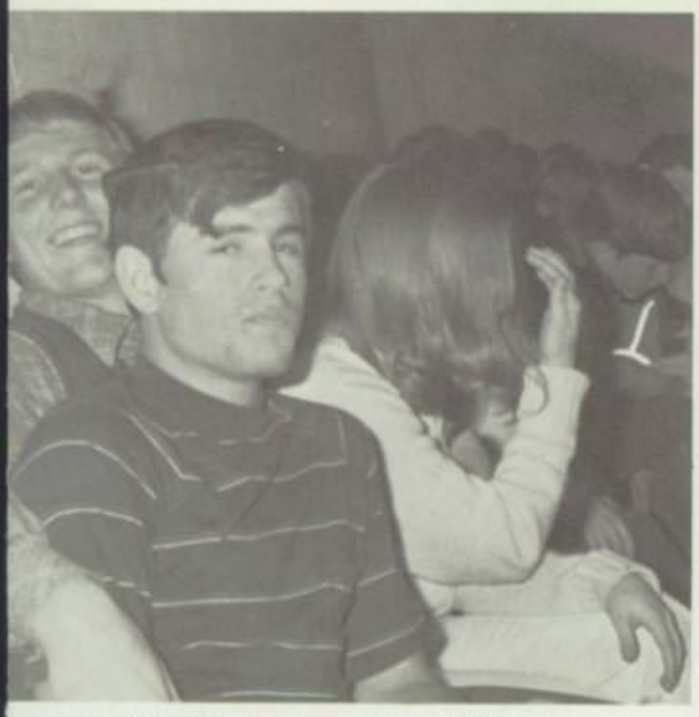
"Well, Harvey, you've got to face the facts sometime."

Dreamy eyes, rehearsing before her date.

"... and he won't let me borrow his brand new key."



"Hurry, before she misses them."



"No, Mike, not in public."

Susan doesn't seem to find Katie's story very interesting.

"There it is; I knew it was here somewhere."

"Who says there's a dress code?"

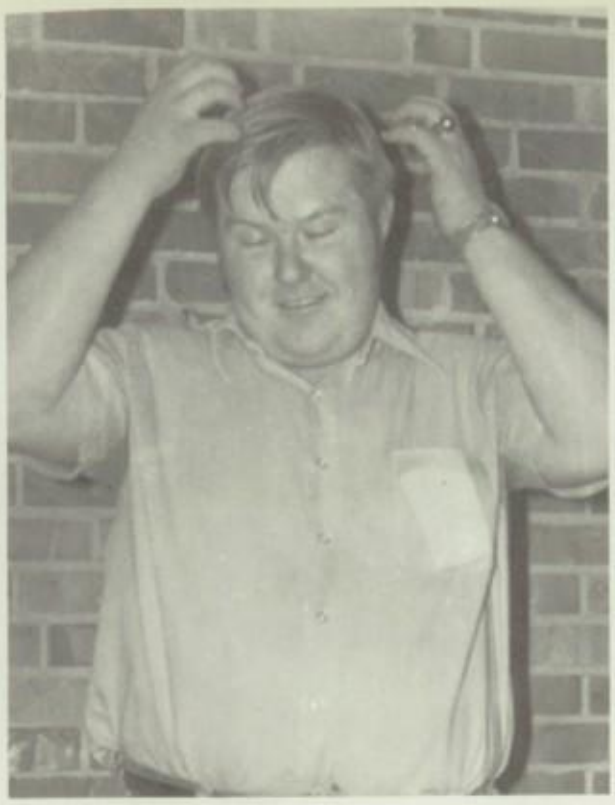
I've got it all planned out like this ..."

"Would you like to dance with my monkey?"

"Mike, won't you ever learn to dress yourself?"

"I say we hang him."

"But I don't want to look Darla!"



"I just can't do a thing with my hair."

Go ahead and eat it Cheryl, nobody is looking.

"Quick hide that penny before they get back around here."

Sophomores unite at last.

Bill shows us his masculinity???

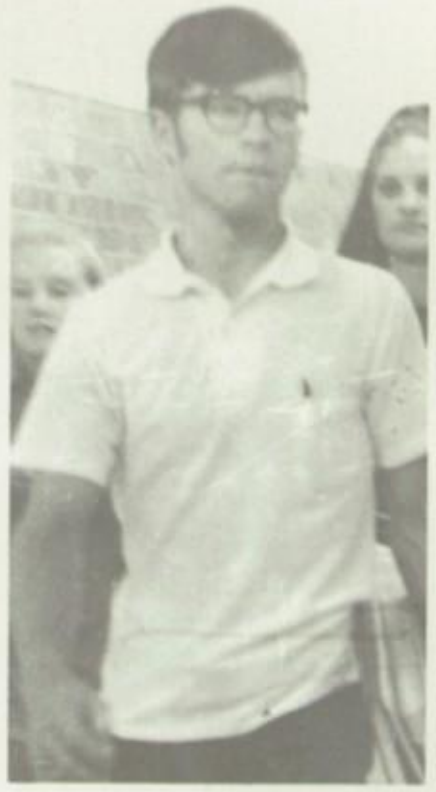
My Mrs. Cleveland you sure age fast!

Spin the bottle is fun, but this is RIDICULOUS!

Happiness is walking the halls without ANY hastle.

"In my opinion, the Squaws this year ..."

Jill trying hard to be a future nurse.



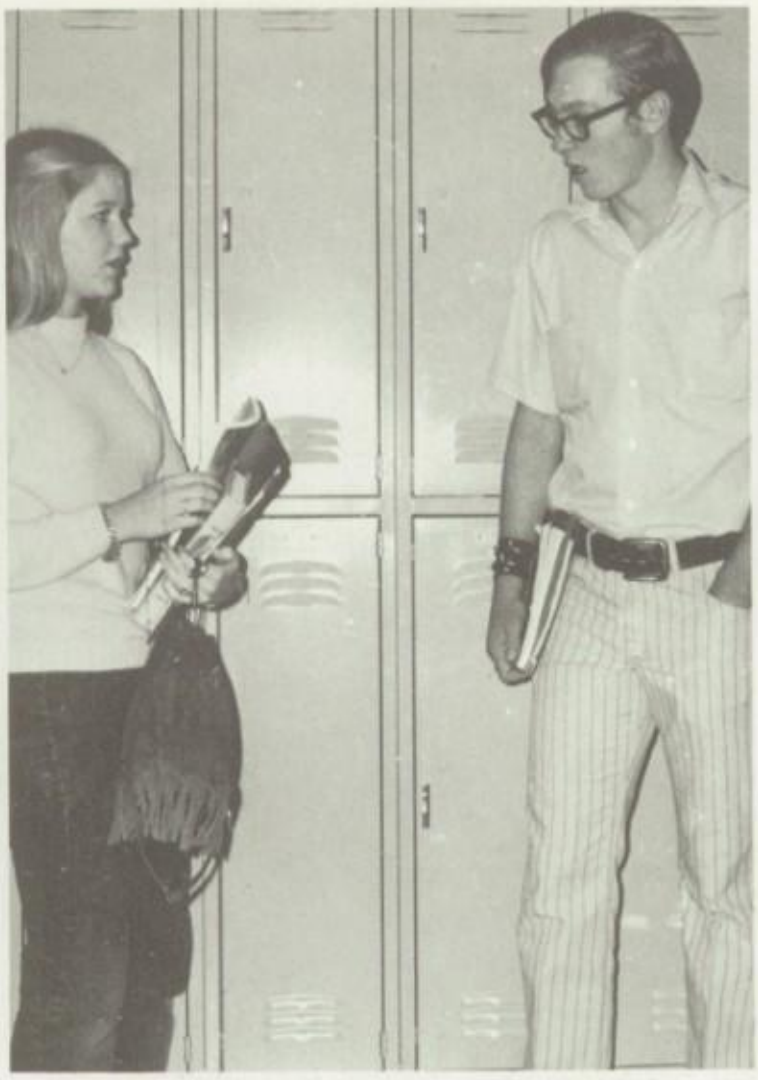
"Which one this week?"

Patti Jon, it uses dimes, not pens.

"According to my latest theory, unilateral intervention of military troops is ..."

No fair soliciting votes, Mr. Cook.

"Peek-a-boo, I see you!"



"You mean you lost your locker?"

Excedrin headache #53820.

"And I told her ..."

"Ummm, all this food is so tempting."

Just a little closer.

"But I'm supposed to take the pictures."

Decisions, decisions!!

"Oh, my toe!"

"Just more applause, no money."

Professor Pecker furthering his education.

"How did she get in here?"

Mickey, we thought only Freshmen did those things.

Looks like Rickey's pants are a little tight.

Hot air will do it every time.

"Back on the Ranch, we did it this way ..."

"Oh, hello Mr. Farr; now about those Coke parties ..."

"Go Big Red!"

"But Jay, Miss Morton is coming."

"Mah fellow Americans ..."

"His name is Randy Robot, and I bought him from Sears."

"Come on grab me, grab me from behind."

Mark, that's not a nice thing to say.

The Theory of Relativity is very easy to understand.

Coach Wood, you are so handsome. (Sigh!)

Can't get my mind off that joke.

And then he said ...

I'm ready when you are.

Knock three times ...

Having ballet lessons today?

Yuck, I think I'm going to be sick.

OOH! If only I hadn't eaten in the cafeteria.

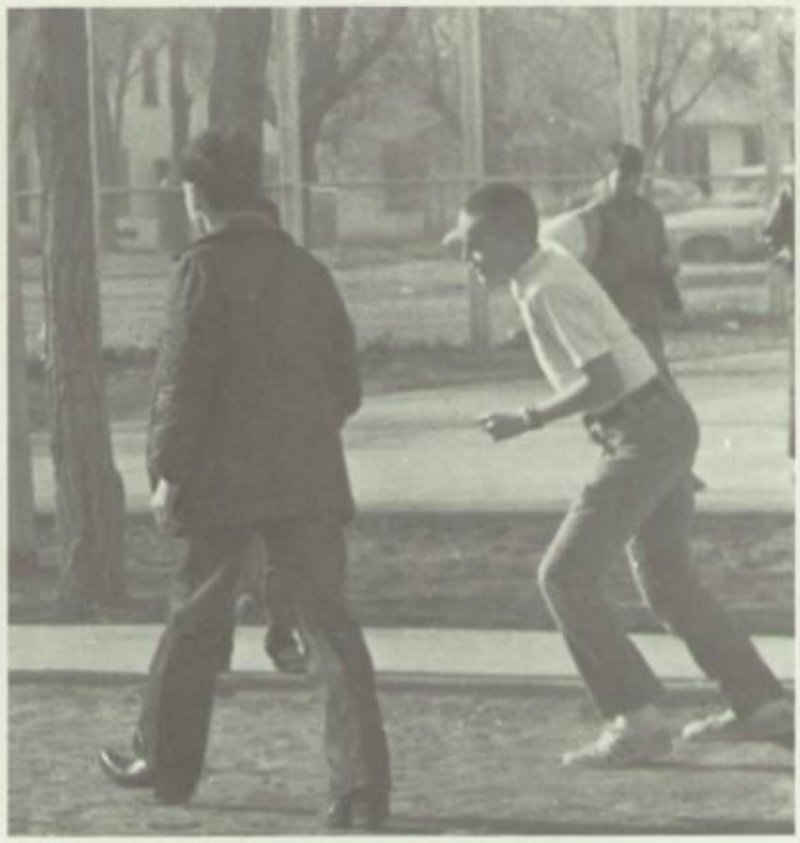
Hey, where did all the guys go?

Hey, look at that girl.

Who's working hard, I'm writing love letters.

I think it would be easier if we had opened both doors.

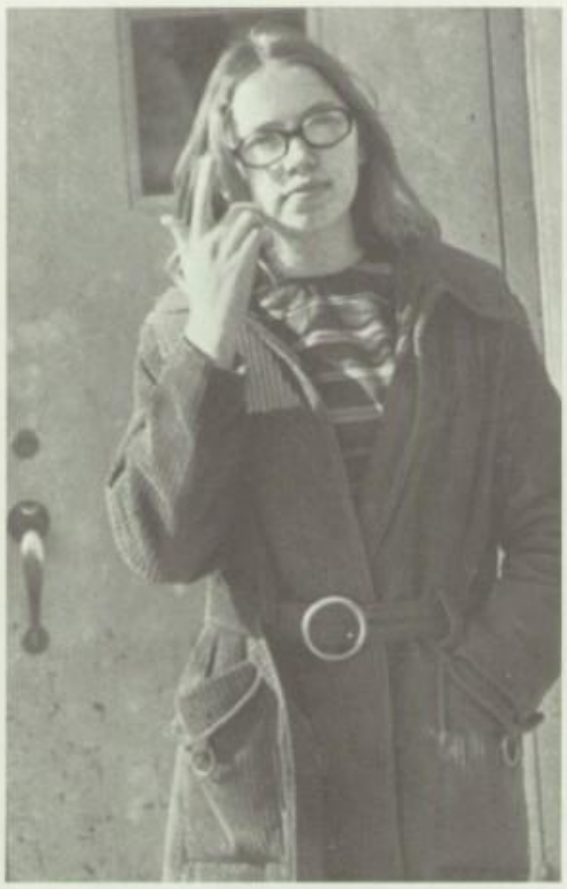
Poo-poo-pee-Doo!!!



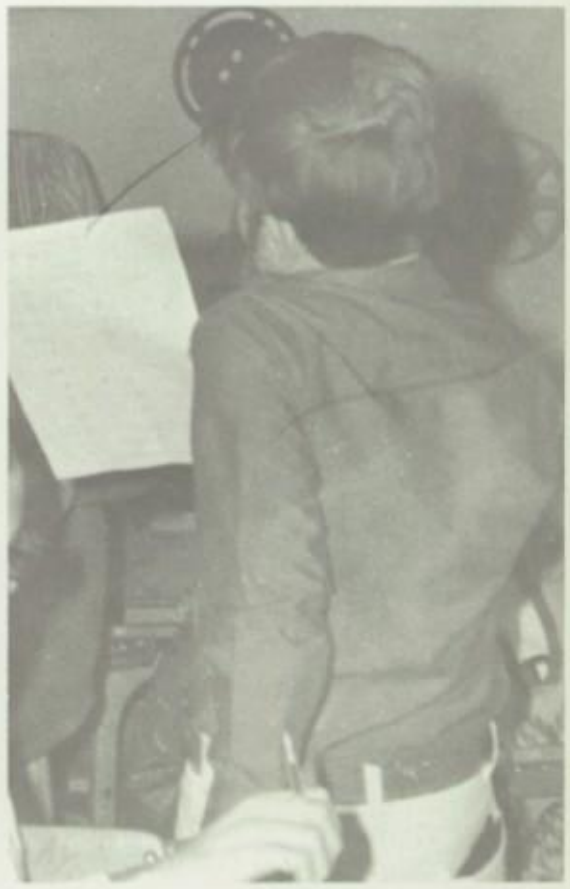
Getting in shape for when a girl approaches.

I came back to Brilcream.

What's so interesting??



Have you ever had one of those days?



"How do I love thee; Let me count the ways."

Quick, spit your gum out before a teacher sees you.

I use Pepsodent.

"Is that JOHN WAYNE?"

"How are ya?"

Mr. Jarboe is once again attacked by his many avid fans.

B-R-R-R-R-R-R-R.

"Stunning aren't I?"

Womp him up side of the head.

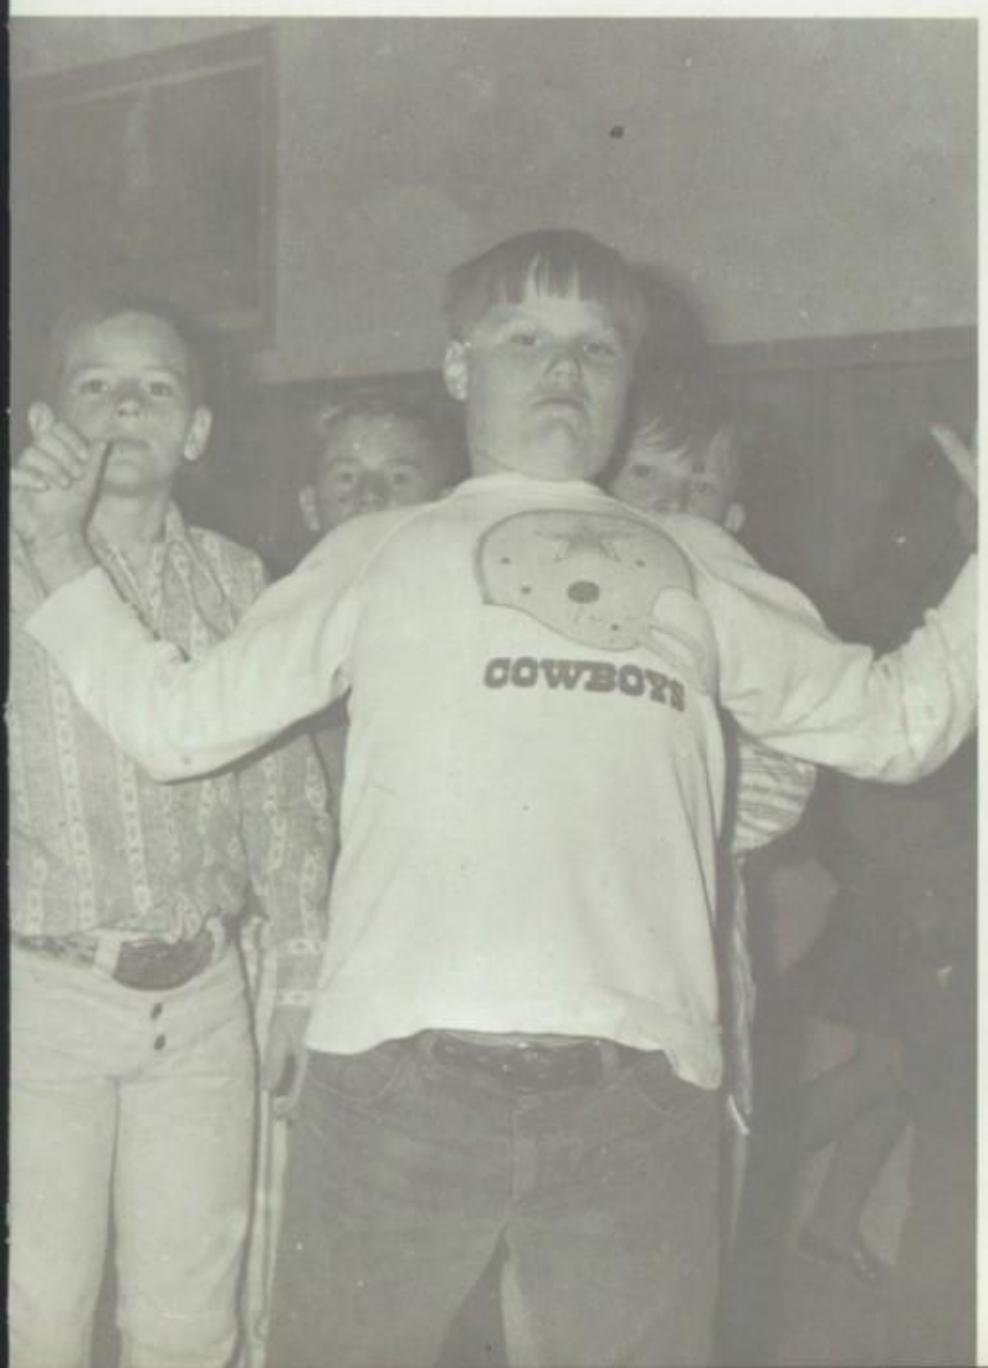
"Remember, it's not whether you win or lose ..."

Some people are really camera shy.

"Hey, come here, Shorty."

"You'll never guess what I heard today."

"AWWW. Cut it out! That tickles."



Here is a future Cowboy bench warmer.

Chris plans to take over Twiggy's job in the near future.

I'd hide too if I'd done that.

"After reading all instructions in my Hai-Karate After Shave ..."

It's a bird. It's a plane. NO! It's, It's super pickle.

"I never knew we had pictures like that in our English book."

"Yes Mr. President, I'm in complete agreement with you ..."

"WHAT did he say?"

"Mr. Jarboe. Fancy meeting you here."

Good luck, Mr. Andrews.

Hey! Does he have a brother?

One of the more promising students of Friona Jr. High.

Hi, Frank.

"What a bummer."

Jr. High kids always have the brightest smiles due to their concern about tooth enamel.

HEY, HEY, HEY.

"After the hamburgers, we'll have a pizza, ice cream, and birthday cake."

Johnny Lightening.

"It's Missouri Beef again."

"OH! Hi, Mom."

"Put your little foot, Put your little foot."

"Oh, darn."

"Mother said there would be days like this."

Taking the First Steps

Oh no, here comes the teacher!

But mom said I can't date until I am sixteen.

I knew I would have to study when I started school, but this is ridiculous!

It was working just a minute ago.

I just polished my teeth.

Wait until I get home and tell Mother about this!

But I don't want you to catch me!

"I didn't think she would ever find out."

"Mr. Gee!"

"Look out below, here I come."

"Did you see what she did? Let's go tell!"

"I thought the bell would never ring."

"Excedrin headache #193."

Simon says ...

"Oh goodie, jellybeans!"

Monkey see, monkey do.

"She said, you said, I said, WHAT?"

Fastest rope jumper in the West.

"Peep-eye!"

"All I need is a little help from my friend."

"If she gives me one more problem ..."

Chiefs Looking For Win In 1971 Finale

Friona's Chieftains, having snapped a five-game losing streak, will be out to finish their 1971 season with a win when they travel to Lockney on Friday for the wrap-up game for the year.

The Chiefs, bolstered by last Friday's 39-6 win over Morton, would like to win Friday in order to have some enthusiasm to carry over to next season.

Gametime at Lockney is 7:30 p.m.

Friona carries a 3-5-1 record into the contest, compared to Lockney's 7-2. However, the Chiefs more or less "started the season over" last Friday, so season records won't mean too much.

Lockney does, however, have the best team the Longhorns have fielded in years, with a potent backfield led by quarterback Tony Ford. Backing up Ford are runningbacks Pat Bennett, Charlie Mathis and Cleo McGee, who have scored 16 touchdowns among them. Bill Hill, an end, has scored six TDs.

James Sims, who came in to lead the Chieftain backfield to 455 total yards offense last Friday, will again get the call in the season finale. Johnny Bandy, who started the first eight games, suffered a pinched arm nerve against Floydada, and could possibly see action in season finale, but his had not cleared him by midweek.

FHS Debate... Win Trophy

Friona High School's debate teams won the "Sweepstakes" trophy for the second year in a row at the Muleshoe Debate Tournament last Saturday.

Spearman High School won first place trophies for the top boys and girls debate teams, but Friona edged their rivals to the north for the sweepstakes trophy with 35 total team points to 30 for Spearman and Muleshoe.

Friona students who contributed to the victory are Sheila Struve, Larry Sanders, Holley Stephenson, Carol Bavousett, Mark Shackelford, Brent Hall, Trip Horton and Jay Messenger.

Joy Morton is coach of FHS debate teams.

THE FIRST DAY OF THE 1971-1972 SCHOOL YEAR. NEW CLASSMATES AND NEW TEACHERS. OVER ONE HUNDRED NEW FRESHMEN ENTERED THE HALLS OF FRIONA HIGH SCHOOL AND A CLASS OF SEVENTY-FIVE STUDENTS BECAME THE 1972 SENIORS. THE YEAR BEGAN WITH THE BUILDING OF FLOATS BY ALL THE HIGH SCHOOL CLASSES FOR THE MAIZE DAYS CELEBRATION. HOMECOMING WAS SOON TO FOLLOW AND BUSY SENIORS SOLD HOMECOMING MUMS AND THEN HAD TO DELIVER THEM BEFORE THE GAME. FOOTBALL SEASON SEEMED SHORT FOR MOST, ESPECIALLY FOR THE SENIORS. THE PEP RALLIES WERE ENCOURAGING AND THE STUDENT BODY SHOWED MUCH SCHOOL SPIRIT. THE BAND PREPARED MANY HALF-TIME SHOWS AND MARCHED HARD TO DO THEM WELL. BUT TOO SOON, THE FOOTBALL SEASON WAS ENDED AND BASKETBALL SEASON BEGAN. THE FRIONA TEAMS SPENT MUCH TIME PRACTICING AND PARTICIPATED IN MANY TOURNAMENTS DURING THE SEASON. SOON THE HALLS OF FRIONA HIGH SCHOOL BEGAN TO SHOW SIGNS OF WRAPPING PAPER AND CARDBOARD. CLASSES AND ORGANIZATIONS HAD BEGUN THE PROCESS OF DECORATING THE DOORS FOR THE CHRISTMAS DOOR COMPETITION. MANY JOLLY, BEAUTIFUL, OR CLEVER IDEAS WERE USED TO MAKE THE HALLS DECOROUS AND HELP PUT THE STUDENTS IN A CHRISTMAS SPIRIT. THE SPEECH CLASS PRESENTED A CHRISTMAS PROGRAM AT THE F.T.A. DINNER. EACH TEACHER WAS PRESENTED WITH A HUMOROUS GIFT IN A RHYMED VERSE MADE UP BY THE SPEECH CLASS MEMBERS. A LIVE SANTA CLAUS PASSED OUT THE GIFTS TO THE TEACHERS. THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS, AFTER SEMESTER EXAMS, WERE A RELIEF TO THE STUDENTS, AND THEY WERE LET OUT FOR A NINE DAY HOLIDAY. THE SNOW MISSED CHRISTMAS DAY, BUT FRIONA HAD SNOW BOTH BEFORE AND AFTER CHRISTMAS. WHEN THE STUDENTS RETURNED TO SCHOOL, SNOW WAS STILL ON THE GROUND AND MANY FOUND THEMSELVES IN THE MIDST OF MANY SNOWBALL FIGHTS, OR SOME EVEN FOUND THEMSELVES BEING ROLLED IN THE SNOW. THEN THE SQUAWS WERE READY TO COMPETE IN THE BI-DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIP. MANY STUDENTS WENT TO PLAINVIEW TO SEE THE GAME. FORENSIC TOURNAMENTS WERE HELD THROUGHOUT THE WEEKS AND FRIONA FOUND THAT THEY HAD A TEAM TO BE PROUD OF. CLASSES AT F.H.S. CONTINUED AND LIFE BEGAN TO SETTLE DOWN INTO A NORMAL PACE AGAIN. "HAVE YOU DONE YOUR ALGEBRA?" "WHAT PAGE WAS THAT ENGLISH ASSIGNMENT ON?" "I HAVEN'T STUDIED FOR THAT GOVERNMENT TEST." THESE WERE SOME OF THE FAMILIAR SAYINGS THAT ONE COULD HEAR AS HE CAME TO SCHOOL IN THE MORNING. DURING THE NOON HOUR, MANY STUDENTS WALKED THE HALLS TO VISIT, GOSSIP, AND TELL THE LATEST JOKES. AFTER SCHOOL, STUDENTS HURRIED TO CATCH THE BUS, TRIED TO GET TO THE PARKING LOT BEFORE THE TRAFFIC JAM, OR STAYED LATE TO WORK ON VARIOUS PROJECTS. TRACK SEASON BEGAN AND SOME SEEMED TO RUN ENDLESSLY TO GET IN SHAPE FOR THE MANY TRACK MEETS THAT WERE SCHEDULED. EASTER HOLIDAYS WERE LONG AWAITED FOR AND STUDENTS GOT A LONG WEEKEND TO TAKE A TRIP OR JUST REST FROM SCHOOL WORK. PLAY REHEARSALS STARTED AND STUDENTS STAYED OUT LATE REHEARSING. SETS WERE PAINTED AND PROPS WERE GATHERED BEFORE THE DRESS REHEARSAL. THE SENIORS STARTED REALIZING JUST HOW SHORT THE YEAR REALLY WAS. ENGLISH CLASS DISCUSSIONS OF HOW THINGS USED TO BE AND WHAT EVERYONE REMEMBERED ABOUT EACH OTHER DURING THE PRIMARY YEARS. "I REMEMBER HOW YOU USED TO WEAR YOUR HAIR IN A LONG PONYTAIL." I REMEMBER HOW YOU ALWAYS USED TO BE THE GENERAL OF THE ARMY WHEN WE PLAYED." "I REMEMBER HOW YOU KISSED ALL THE BOYS AFTER YOU CAUGHT THEM." ANXIOUS JUNIORS BEGAN TO BECOME AWARE THAT SOON IT WILL BE THEY THAT ARE THE SENIORS AND THEY REALISE HOW FAST THE YEARS HAVE GONE BY. BANQUETS WERE BEING PREPARED AND DECORATIONS ORDERED AND THE CAFETERIA WAS A PLACE THAT HELD MANY DECORATIONS THIS YEAR. FRIONA HIGH SCHOOL SHOWED INCREASING ACTIVITY AS THE END OF THE SCHOOL YEAR CAME AROUND. ANNUALS HAD BEEN PASSED OUT AND THE ANNUAL SIGNING PARTIES WERE HELD. SOME SENIORS WERE SADDENED THAT THIS WAS THE LAST YEAR TO HOLD SUCH A MEETING. SENIORS MEASURED FOR CAPS AND GOWNS AND THEIR INVITATIONS HAD BEEN ORDERED AND RECEIVED. "I HAVEN'T SENT MY INVITATIONS YET." BUT SOON ALL SENIORS HAD MAILED THEIR INVITATIONS AND TIME WAS APPROACHING FOR GRADUATION. THE SCHOOL YEAR WAS FAST ENDING AND THE SENIORS HAD FINALLY FINISHED THEIR HIGH SCHOOL CAREER. PLANS FOR THE SUMMER WERE BEING MADE AND THE APPLICATIONS FOR ACCEPTANCE TO A COLLEGE OF THE STUDENT'S CHOICE WERE BEING FILLED OUT. PARTIES WERE HELD BY ORGANIZATIONS AND INDIVIDUALS AS WELL. GRADUATION GIFTS WERE BEING GIVEN AND "THANK YOU'S" WERE BEING MAILED. FINALLY CAME THE BACCALAUREATE SERVICES AND THE COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES. MANY TEARFUL SENIORS SAID GOOD-BYES TO SOME OF THEIR CLASSMATES. THE DANCE AND THE EARLY MORNING BREAKFAST WERE A LAST UNITING OF THE CLASS OF '72. YES, THIS YEAR HAD BEEN SHORT, BUT A FULL AND REWARDING YEAR FOR THE STUDENTS OF F.H.S.

WHAT'S SO SPECIAL ABOUT BEING A SENIOR? MARCH 7 - SLAVE DAY FOR ALL '72 SENIORS!! THE SENIORS WERE AUCTIONED OFF AND SOLD TO UNDERCLASSMEN AND TEACHERS FOR PRICES FROM $1 TO $18. THE MASTERS GOT TO RULE OVER THE SENIORS AND HAVE THEM AS SLAVES FOR AN ENTIRE DAY. THE SENIORS HAD TO OBEY THEIR MASTERS AND DO TASKS SUCH AS CARRY BOOKS, SING AND DANCE, GIVE KARATE DEMONSTRATIONS AND PULL LITTLE RED WAGONS. ONE EVEN HAD TO LET GIRLS TASTE HIS MUSTACHE IN ORDER TO EARN A QUARTER FOR "YOU KNOW WHO" - THE MASTER. "WHAT? WALK ALL THE WAY ROUND THE HALL TO GET YOUR BOOKS WHEN YOU MUST ONLY GO TO THE ROOM NEXT DOOR?" FRILLY DRESSES, CUTOFFS, WATERGUNS, AND COWBOY HATS, BASEBALL MITTENS, JUMPROPES, ROLLER SKATES, BABY DOLLS AND STUFFED ANIMALS WERE ALL SEEN IN THE HALLS OF F.H.S. APRIL 28, AS IT WAS SENIOR KID DAY. NOSTALGIC MEMORIES OF GRADE SCHOOL DAYS PASSED THROUGH MANY OF THE SENIOR'S THOUGHTS THROUGHOUT THE DAY. SENIOR DAY STARTED OUT WITH EVERYONE GETTING SOAKED BY WATER-GUNS, WATER BALLOONS AND SOAP BOTTLES, BEFORE THE BUS TOOK OFF, ABOUT THE TIME THE CLASS WAS READY TO LEAVE, TWO GIRLS RUSHED OFF THE BUS - ONE HAD A NOSE BLEED, JUST FROM ALL THE EXCITEMENT. AFTER GETTING TO MCKINZIE PARK IN LUBBOCK, - ON WITH A WATER BALLOON WAR BETWEEN THE GIRLS AND THE BOYS. NATURALLY, THE BOYS WERE BETTER SHOTS THAN MOST OF THE GIRLS. AFTER THE BALLOONS BECAME SCARCE, EVERYONE BEGAN TO EAT. LATER ON SEVERAL DISCOVERED THE AMUSEMENT PARK AND ENTERTAINED THEM-SELVES BY THE BUMPER CARS, TILT-A-WHIRL, AND HAMMER. BUT WHAT REALLY GATHERED ALL'S ATTENTION WAS THE BIG, LONG, YELLOW HOSE THAT THE BOYS FOUND HOOKED TO A WATER FAUCET. THEY SOON DISCOVERED HOW WELL IT WOULD DRENCH SOMEONE - CLOTHES AND ALL. "I KNOW HOW TO SWIM" AND "DON'T" WERE HEARD FROM NON-COOPERATING GIRLS. EVERYONE HAD THEIR SHARE OF GETTING WET AND BOBBING UP AND DOWN IN THE KIDDIE BOAT RIDE WATER. SOME VENTURED OFF AND PLAYED TENNIS, OR FOOTBALL, OR JUST SAT ON THE GRASS SOAKING UP THE SUN THAT WAS COVERED BY THE CLOUDS. "WELL, ARE WE GOING TO LEAVE OR NOT?" EVENTUALLY EVERYONE GOT LOADED ON THE BIG YELLOW BUS AND STARTED BACK FOR THE OLD HOMETOWN - FRIONA. THERE MUST HAVE BEEN SOMETHING ABOUT WATER THAT DAY, BECAUSE ON THE WAY HOME, IT RAINED. MAY 19, PRACTICE FOR BACCALAUREATE AND COM-MENCEMENT. BACCALAUREATE APPROACHES - FINALLY, ON MAY 21 THE CLASS WAS SEATED AND TWO MEMBERS OF THE CLASS, SALLY KENDRICK AND STEVE STONE, SANG "CLIMB EVERY MOUNTAIN" FOR A SPECIAL NUMBER. BROTHER LINDLEY DELIVERED THE MESSAGE, ASKING THE SENIORS AND THE AUDIENCE THREE QUESTIONS. "AM I MY BROTHER'S KEEPER?" "WHAT DO I HAVE TO DO TO BE SAVED?" AND "WHO IS THIS MAN?" THIS MARKED THE SENIOR'S BEGINNING STEP INTO LIFE WITH ONLY TWO MORE DAYS LEFT IN FRIONA HIGH SCHOOL. MAY 27, GRADUATION!!! EVERYONE WANDERED AROUND HARDLY BELIEVING THAT THIS WAS THE DAY. PICTURES WERE MADE OF NERVOUS SENIORS; AND PARENTS WERE SNAPPING SHOTS OF THEIR CHILDREN AND THEIR CHILDREN'S FRIENDS. MANY QUESTIONS POPPED INTO THE SENIORS' HEADS SUCH AS "WHERE IS MY CAP?" "HOW DOES MY HAIR LOOK?" "WHICH HAND DO I SHAKE WITH AND WHICH DO I RECEIVE MY DIPLOMA WITH?", OR "WHICH SIDE DOES THE TASSEL START OUT ON?" FINALLY, IT WAS 8:30, TIME TO START THE FINAL WALK AS A STUDENT. EVERYONE WAS READY AND IN LINE. THE PROCESSIONAL WAS STARTED AND EACH WALKED DOWN THE AISLE TO RECEIVE THEIR DIPLOMA FOR TWELVE YEARS OF EDUCATION. JILL RIETHMAYER GAVE THE SALUTATORY ADDRESS. THE SENIOR GIFT, (NEW LIGHTING FOR THE HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM) WAS PRESENTED BY TROY WHITE, CLASS PRESIDENT, TO MR. FARR. SALLY KENDRICK, THE HISTORIAN GAVE THE CLASS HISTORY, POINT-ING OUT THE PROGRESS THE STUDENTS MADE TO THIS POINT. THE VALEDICTORY ADDRESS WAS GIVEN BY LOU WHALEY, DIPLOMAS WERE GIVEN TO ACKNOWLEDGE EACH SENIOR'S ACCOMPLISHMENT DURING TWELVE YEARS OF EDUCATION. FOR THE LAST TIME, THE SENIORS TURNED TOWARD THE AUDIENCE AND SANG THE SCHOOL SONG. THE RECESSIONAL BEGAN. EACH SENIOR TURNED AND WALKED BACK UP THE AISLE, BUT THIS TIME TO A NEW LIFE AHEAD. IT BEGAN WITH A ROAR FROM THE CLASS FOR THEY FINALLY MADE IT, BUT THEY ALL REALIZED THIS WAS THE END OF MANY ADVENTURES THEY WOULD SHARE TOGETHER WITH THEIR FRIENDS AND ALL WOULD GO THEIR SEPARATE WAYS. TEARS BEGAN TO APPEAR IN MANY OF THEIR EYES TO SHOW THEIR SADNESS FOR WHAT HAS BEEN, AS WELL AS THEIR HAPPINESS FOR WHAT IS TO COME. WHAT IS LIFE GOING TO BE LIKE WITH EVERYONE LEAVING: WILL IT BE RUGGED AND TRYING? ALIVE AND HAPPY? WILL THERE BE A JOB OR MORE EDUCATION? NO MATTER WHAT ROAD THE GRADUATING SENIORS OF '72 TRAVEL, THEY WILL ALWAYS HAVE MANY TREASURED AND HAPPY MEMORIES OF THEIR DAYS OF F.H.S.

THIS WAS A DAY OF FUN FOR ALL AND ALSO A

DAY OF LEARNING AND SEEING NEW AND DIFFERENT THINGS. WHILE THE FIRST GRADERS WERE ON THEIR DAY OFF FROM SCHOOL AND THE SECOND GRADERS WERE ON THEIR SCHOOL TRIP, THE FIVE YEAR OLDS INVADED THE SCHOOL. PRESCHOOL DAY WAS THE DAY WHEN ALL OF NEXT YEAR'S FIRST GRADERS

THE SENIORS WILL REMEMBER MANY THINGS ABOUT FRIONA HIGH SCHOOL. THE SENIORS ASSOCIATED WITH THE SENIOR PLAY WILL REMEMBER WEINERS AND MARSHMALLOWS STUCK ON THEIR CARS DURING PLAY REHEARSALS. SENIOR DAY WAS FULL OF WATER GUNS, WATER BALLOONS, AND WATER HOSES AND LOTS OF DAMP SENIORS. WHO COULD FORGET RICHARD SHIRLEY'S CONSTANT THREAT OF "BEATING THE DOG OUT OF YOU" OR HIS CONSTANTLY CALLING A "GOOBER"? OR WHAT ABOUT MIKE ROBERTS' AND RANDY LEWIS' FAVORITE SAYING "DIGABUGER"? TUESDAY, THE LAST DAY OF SCHOOL FOR ALL EXEMPT SENIORS WAS CELEBRATED BY SOME OF THE SENIORS BY SETTING ALARM CLOCKS FOR ONE O'CLOCK, THE MIDDLE OF FOURTH PERIOD, AND PUTTING THEM IN THEIR LOCKERS. SOME OF THE TEACHERS WERE SUSPICIOUS, AND WHEN THE CLOCKS STARTED GOING OFF AT VARIOUS TIMES, EVERYONE KNEW THAT THE SENIORS HAD PULLED ANOTHER STUNT. THE SENIORS IN THE BAND REMEMBER THE SONGS THAT WERE SUNG, AND ALSO THE ROUNDS THAT WERE PERFORMED, ON THE BUS TO SIX FLAGS AND ALSO THE PARTY THAT OUR BUS DRIVER HAD ON THE NIGHT BEFORE HIS BIRTHDAY. JUNIORS REMEMBER THE JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET AND THE LONG HOURS THAT THEY SPENT TRYING TO FINISH DECORATING. THE FRIDAY NIGHT BEFORE THE BANQUET SATURDAY WAS SPENT DECORATING UNTIL TWELVE O'CLOCK THAT NIGHT. SATURDAY MORNING, THE JUNIORS RETURNED TO FIND THE CEILING DECORATIONS HAD FALLEN DOWN AND THEY HURRIEDLY TRIED TO GET THEM BACK UP, AND THEY DID FINISH BEFORE BANQUET TIME. SOPHOMORES ENJOYED A CLASS TRIP TO PALO DURO CANYON WHERE THEY TOO ENJOYED THE USE OF WATER GUNS AND WATER BALLOONS. EVERYONE THAT WENT ON THE TRIP RETURNED WITH A SUNBURN AND A VERY TIRED BODY. SOPHOMORE SERVERS REMEMBER HOW THEY HAD TO WEAR THAT DARK MAKE-UP AND HAVE BLACK HAIR SO THEY COULD SERVE ALL THE UPPERCLASSMEN AND THE BANQUET. FRESHMEN KNOW ALL ABOUT BEING PESTERED CONSTANTLY BY UPPERCLASSMEN DURING THE YEAR. PALO DURO CANYON WAS THE SIGHT OF THEIR CLASS PARTY DURING WHICH WATER BALLOONS AND WATER GUNS AND HIKING WERE THE MAIN SOURCES OF ENTERTAINMENT. EVERYONE WILL REMEMBER SUCH MOVIES AS "SUMMER OF '42", AND "RED SKY AT MORNING" WHICH WERE BIG HITS AT THE TIME. FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLUB MEMBERS CAN'T FORGET NOT BEING ABLE TO SEE "THE GODFATHER" BECAUSE NOT ALL OF THEM WERE EIGHTEEN. ANOTHER MOVIE THAT WAS POPULAR WAS "THE COWBOYS" BECAUSE JOHN WAYNE WAS SHOT AND HE ACTUALLY DIED ... A REAL TEAR-JERKER. ONE OF THE FADS THAT HIT F.H.S. AROUND SPRING-TIME WAS THE YO-YO. SOME OF THE STUDENTS COULD NEVER SEEM TO PART WITH THEIR FAVORITE YO-YO. STUDENTS IN MISS MORTON'S SPEECH CLASS DIVIDED INTO TWO GROUPS AND WORKED ON A FINAL SIX WEEKS PROGRAM. THOSE WHO SAW THE RESULT OF THE WORK DONE BY THESE STUDENTS COULD NEVER FORGET THE COMMERCIAL FILM OR THE MELODRAMA THAT WAS PRESENTED BY THEM. THEN THERE WERE THE ORGANIZATION TRIPS AND PARTIES THAT THE STUDENTS HAD TO PROVIDE FOOD FOR OR TAKE TIME TO ATTEND. ICE CREAM DAY FOR THE FFA AND FHA STUDENTS CAN BE REMEMBERED AS THE DAY EVERYONE THAT ATE ICE CREAM THOUGHT THEY MIGHT GAIN TEN POUNDS. REMEMBER THE FHA PROGRAM IN WHICH THE TEACHERS GOT TOGETHER TO ACT OUT FAIRY TALES? "CINDERFELLA" WON FIRST PLACE AND MR. PRYOR, MR. SHELTON, "LITTLE GIRL PIG" (MR. MADDOX), MR. MERRITT, MR. COFFEY, MRS. CLEVELAND, AND MRS. PRIEST WERE MEMBERS OF THE ALL-STAR CAST. ALL NEW OFFICERS WERE SELECTED BY ORGANIZATIONS AND THE OUT GOING OFFICERS REMEMBER THEIR EXPERIENCES DURING THEIR YEAR. FRESHMEN LOOK FORWARD TO THE NEXT YEAR AND SENIORS REALIZE THAT THEY HAVE NOW COMPLETED THEIR HIGH SCHOOL YEARS AND THEY MUST NOW FIND A NEW LIFE AND LEARN BY NEW EXPERIENCES. THE SENIORS REMEMBER THE TIME THAT THEY ENTERED THE HIGH SCHOOL FOR THE FIRST TIME AND HOW THEY FEARED THE UPPERCLASSMEN AND THE NEW TERRITORY THAT THEY WERE TO ENTER. SENIORS CAN REMEMBER ALL THOSE EXPERIENCES, SOME SMALL - OTHERS MORE IMPORTANT, THAT HAVE HAPPENED TO THEM THROUGHOUT THEIR SCHOOL YEARS. HOW MUCH EVERYONE HAD CHANGED! FINALLY THESE SENIORS TOOK THEIR FINAL STEP AS THEY FINISHED THIS YEAR IN FRIONA, THEIR HOMETOWN. THE BACCALAUREATE SERVICES DELIVERED BY BROTHER LINDLEY AND THAT PROCESSION DOWN THE AISLES OF THE GRADE SCHOOL AUDITORIUM WILL BE REMEMBERED AS A MILESTONE TO THE CLASS OF '72. FINALLY COMES THE GRADUATION NIGHT WHICH WILL BE REMEMBERED BY ALL SENIORS AS ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT HAPPENINGS IN THEIR LIVES. WHAT FOLLOWS IN THE FUTURE? ANOTHER CLASS HAS PASSED THROUGH THE HALLS OF FRIONA HIGH SCHOOL. FOR MANY OF THESE STUDENTS, THE HALLS OF F.H.S. HOLD MANY MEMORIES, SOME HAPPY, OTHERS NOT. THE YEAR OF THE CLASS OF '72 IS OVER AND FINISHED. THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1972 NOW STEPS ASIDE FOR THE UPCOMING CLASS, WHO SOON SHALL REMEMBER THE DAYS OF THEIR HIGH SCHOOL DAYS AS THIS YEAR'S SENIORS LOOK UPON THEIRS.
